

Customer Service Advice from Telstra

Delay due to severe weather events in Northern Rivers, Northern Tablelands and Mid North Coast Districts and parts of the Hunter, Central Tablelands and North West Slopes and Plains Districts of New South Wales.

The Northern Rivers, Northern Tablelands and Mid North Coast Districts and parts of the Hunter, Central Tablelands and North West Slopes and Plains Districts of New South Wales were impacted by severe weather on or about Saturday 15 January 2022 through to Sunday 16 January 2022.

An interruption to Telstra's normal operations has occurred leading to delays in installation and repair activities. As many as 2,100 Telstra services are impacted in the area bounded by and including, but not limited to, the area starting at Duranbah Beach on the QLD/NSW border following the coastline south past Byron Bay, Port Macquarie and Forster to Dark Point, then west to Clarence Town. From Clarence Town the area heads southwest past Thornton to Wyong Creek, west to Ben Bullen, and northwest to Stuart Town then north to Mendooran. The area turns northeast past Rocky Glen and Gravesend to Blue Knobby then north to the NSW/QLD border and continues following the border easterly back to Duranbah Beach. All suburbs and towns, off shore islands and coastal areas serviced by Telstra within these boundaries are encompassed in this exemption.

We anticipate that the majority of services will be restored by 20 February 2022. We're sorry for any inconvenience this delay may cause but we can assure you we are working hard to get things back on track.

What else do you need to know?

Information as to the nature of these severe weather events can be sourced from the Bureau of Meteorology (BOM). Damaging winds, large hailstones and heavy rainfall are referred to in the BOM Severe Weather Warning issued for 15 January 2022 initially at 3:17 pm Saturday, 15 January 2022, reference number IDN21033; all of which were widely reported in the news media after the events.

Due to this event, we're claiming an exemption under section 21 of the Telecommunications (Customer Service Guarantee) Standard 2011, including an exemption from the payment of compensation between 17 January 2022 to 20 February 2022 inclusive for any delays in fixing or connecting services, and the keeping of appointments relating to these activities in the impacted area.

Need more information?

For any questions about your service, the CSG exemption or to ask us to reconsider whether the circumstances are a proper basis for claiming the exemption, please call anytime on 132203* for service difficulties and faults or 132200* for sales, installations and billing. When calling please quote reference number 20220117-NSW-E-C-P-NORTHERN NSW. If our response doesn't satisfy you, then you may wish to contact the Telecommunications Industry Ombudsman (TIO).
